

Hospice Calgary presents...

Diversity Conversations: Sharing Experiences with Humility

We gather wisdom and enhance the beauty of our multicultural tapestry through the sharing of stories.

Join palliative care professionals and volunteers for conversations about end-of-life practices and beliefs from diverse cultures and religions.

Tuesday February 14, 2012 8:00-9:30am
Aboriginal Perspectives at End-of-Life

Presenter: Louise Crane

Louise Crane is a Metis of Cree heritage who has worked in community development and facilitating for the past 30 years. She has extensive experience teaching health professionals about Native culture.

LOCATION & COST

Hospice Calgary Counselling & Education Centre
1245—70th Ave SE (across from Trail Appliances, parking at the rear)

Refreshments provided
Diversity Conversations are offered at no cost.
Donations to Hospice Calgary are appreciated.

For more information or to register, contact Blair Collins
403-263-4525 ext. 211 or blair.collins@hospicecalgary.com

www.hospicecalgary.com

